A gain of 125,629 In Three Years.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1894.

PRICE ONE CENT.

BREAKS The World's Circulation for the First Two Months 433, 1

THE WORLD'S ADVANCE LAST EDITION

ITS DAILY AVERAGE CIRCULATION THE LARGEST ON RECORD.

Section 717a. Every proprietor or publisher of any newspaper or periodical who shall wilfully or knowingly misrepresent the circulation of such newspaper or periodical for the purpose of securing advertising or other patronage shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.—[Chap. 650, Laws of 1893—pushed through by THE WORLD.]

Average circulation for first two months of 17,760

1893, 365,309

67,858

per day

YEAR

ONE

1894. 433,167 per day.

A gain of 125,629 per day THREE YEARS.

1891,

307,538

per day,

Circulation of The World for each day of Queen, he referred to the increasing diffi-January and February this year compared with corresponding days of last year and three years ago:

unce years ago.	1891.	1893.
Jan. 1	202,010	*263,845
Ian. 2	284,040	239,667
Jan. 8	289,850	854,116
Jan. 4	*240,040	352,223
Jan. 5	279,670	346,541
Jan. 6	283,540	342,588
Jan. 7	286,900	351,146
Jan. 8	287,790	•264,739
Jan. 9	288,510	353,935
Jan. 10	292,330	347,837
Jan. 11	*240,290	344,958
Jan. 12	290,770	342,090
Jan. 13	290,160	348,442
Jan. 14	295,540	350,284
Jan. 15	335,960	*263,827
Jan. 16	295,890	350,504
Jan. 17	279,200	355,079
Jan. 18	•240,800	357,430
	298,920
		361,664 358,692
Jan. 20	301,090 304,200
Jan. 21		362,030
Jan. 22	298,960	*264,034 359,936
Jan. 23	305,410
Jan. 24	304,840	366,036
Jan. 25	*248,560 202,700	366,656
Jan. 26	303,790	379,267
Jan. 27	298,620	402,983
Jan. 28	303,520	380,761
Jan. 29	305,360	*264,210
Jan. 30	303,510	372,562
Jan. 31	302,970	372,543
Feb. 1	*245,200	368,125
Feb. 2	301,680	369,845
Feb. 3	802,580	371,315
Feb. 4	297,290	366,465
Feb. 5	800,310	*265,020
Feb. 6	300,660	362,190
Feb. 7	298,520	372,305
Feb. 8	*246,100	371,354
Feb. 9	292,390	374,524
Feb. 10	301,220	375,491
Feb. 11	304,830	378,314
Feb. 12	309,120	•265,199
Feb. 13	310,250	354,460
Feb. 14	328,470	376,019
Feb. 15	*247,450	378,457
Feb. 16	301,510	381,943
Feb. 17	305,050	376,429
Feb. 18	311,160	370,345
Feb. 19	311,420	*266,784
Feb. 20	326,500	359,943
Feb. 21	311,160	377,301
Feb. 22	*246,500	314,049
Feb. 23	277,820	378,612
Feb. 24	310,240	382,448
Feb. 25	306,450	384,428
Feb. 26	295 380	*266.538

Feb. 26.....

Feb. 27....

Feb. 28.....

Weekly and Semi-Weekly

Daily Average 307,538 * Morning Edition only.

GLADSTONE TO THE QUEEN.

The Premier Told Her Majesty that He Must Soon Leave His Post.

The Grand Old Man Speaks Again To-Day on the Local Government Bill.

MET BY CHEERS OF THE HOUSE.

Will Accept the Peers' Amendments | says: in Hope of Reversing

LONDON, March 1.-Mr. Gladstone's secretary informed the Associated Press this afternoon that the resignation of the Premier could not long be delayed. Continuing, Mr. Littleton said that, at Buckingham Palace yesterday with the culties which he experienced owing to his told Her Majesty that he could not long the Premiership.

A full Cabinet council of two hours' duration was held this afternoon. It 274,440 was announced that the Ministers will 408,582 only consider the subject of the House of Lords amendments to the Parish 410,560 Councils bills.

Mr. Gladstone entered the House 407,765 Commons at 3.30 P. M. to-day, and was 411,500 loudly cheered. The Premier took his accustomed seat between Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Ex-*279,985 chequer, and John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland. 408,669 So soon as Mr. Gladstone was abl

412,898 to do so, he entered into a whispered 406,622 consultation with Sir William Harcourt, and seemed to be very much 411,131 in earnest in regard to the subject of their conversation. Mr. Gladstone fre-quently consulted a small document 412,975 which was handed to him by the Chan-*284,734 cellor of the Exchequer. The Premier adusted his eye-glasses and seemed to read the paper handed to him without In the meantime Lord Rosebery, the

427,611 took a front seat in the Peers' gallery. 428,795 The entrance of Lord Rosebery attracted 438.730 vigor.

During the course of his speech the •294,572 Premier said that the Government felt 417.698 that this operation of sending and resending a bill from one house to another had continued long enough. (Loud and 439.940 prolonged cheering and much laughter.) When Mr. Gladstone was again able to 449,503 resume speaking, he said: "To continue the process would be loss of dignity to both houses, and the Government has de-446,149 cided to stop the operation and take s *300,226 decided course.

"The Government has the choice of rejecting the House of Lords' amendments or to accept them under protest with the ernment adopts the second course. 433,318 (Cheering.) Mr. Gladstone then reviewed the ac-

432,037

438,421

*266,538

302,320

305,960

964,210

17,180,580

384,870

379,404

20,512,802

1,040,463

21,553,265

365,309

447,378 *302,219 and said: "We have now reached an acute stage

427,833 It appears that the House of Lord desires to annihilate the whole work o the House of Commons. 434,918 "No doubt there is a higher authority 476.864 than the House of Commons; namely the authority of the Nation (loud cheers).

which must in last resort decide. (Re-443,565 newed cheers.) (Loud opposition cries *305,316 of "At once!") "When that judgment is to be invited 474,168 is a question which the Government At the conclusion of Mr. Gladstone's

464,541 remarks he asked the House to accept the House of Lords' amendments to the 401,530

446,654 T. P. O'Connor, in The Sun, says that 433,253 a rearrangement of the Cabinet will take place when the resignation of Mr. Gladstone, which all now regard as im-444,109 pending, takes effect Mr. O'Connor then points out that though the Queen sen 452,656 for Lord Rosebery the conflict for the 455,425 Premiership is not settled.

The Queen, Mr. O'Connor continues. 24,612,520 944,349 25,556,869 leader says:

"Much of the opposition to Lord Rose foreign affairs, he represents Jingolan instead of Radicalism. This difficulty Foreign Office, and John Morley or the Earl of Kimberley may succeed him The Rt. Hon. James Bryce, Chan cellor of Duchy of Lancaster, or Mr. Herbert Gladstone, Parliamentary Sec. retary of the Home Office, may succeed Mr. Morley as Chief Secretary for Ire says that at the Federation meeting Timothy Healey declared that he was entirely in the dark as to the threatened whatever happened Gladstone's name would always be remembered by Ireland amidst the fragrance of imperish-

He added that he might go further and say that in no Cabinet likely to be formed in the present generation would Barrett and a jury in the Court of Oyer Ireland ever again have so stanch a and Terminer. The quick convictions of friend. So far as fidelity to the Irish Dooley and Fay, who were his fellowcause was concerned, they had deter mined friends, he said, in men like Mor

CHAIRMAN WILSON'S PERIL. His Life, at Last Reports, Hung by a Slender Thread.

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 1 .- A specia from the City of Mexico dated last night

"Chairman Wilson was reported as no as well to-day. His temperature is up to 102 degrees. It is supposed that the crisis has arrived at last asked for four reports every day until special car are very anxious to-night. as Mr. Wilson is so very weak that his

T. D. SULLIVAN'S CONDITION.

The New York Senator's Entire Left Lung Is Now Involved. (Dy Associated Press.)

ALBANY, March 1.-Drs. Ward and Lillienthal, who are attending Senator Timothy D. Sullivan, at the City Hospital, say this morning that his entire left lung is involved and he is in a se His vitality is, however, very remark able, and they have hopes that they may pull him through.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP.

funting Party Passes the Night b Crootan Sound Light.

(By Associated Press.)
ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., March I.—
President Cleveland and his party are moving still further away from civilizalying at Long Point, near the foot of the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal. After affording the party an opportunity to 425,075 In the meantime Lord Rosebery, the anorthing the party of State for Foreign Affairs, try their skill on the ducks in the early secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, try their skill on the ducks in the early morning the little steamer hauled up her 430,324 of, the Speaker put the question that the House of Lords amendments to the Local 448,149 dovernment bill be considered.

Mr. Gladstone then arose and addressed the House, speaking in a full, resonant voice, which occasionally was marred by a slight huskiness. He spoke 438,730 view of the party of the spoke with the spoke with Mysterious Couple Married by Col McClellan.

A quiet wedding took place in the private office of Mayor Gilroy in the City Hall this morning. The ceremony was performed by President George B

McClellan, of the Board of Aldermen, and it was evidently the intention to suppress all mention of it.

The contracting parties were ushered into the Mayor's office by a private door and the same secrecy was observed on their departure. Col. McClellan refused to give the names of the couple, expressing that he was so situated that "he could not." The names of the witnesses arne also withheld. The Mayor and Acting Private Secretary McLoncugh said they knew nothing about the marriage either.

But the information cannot be suppressed long. The certificate of marriage must be filed at the Bureau of Vital Statistics within ten days, and then the mysterious couple will be known. They are described by the loungers who saw them in the City Hall corridors as a handsome pair, of refined appearance and well dressed.

MR. BLAND WINS AGAIN.

Special Rule for His New Silver Bill Adopted in the House. (By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 1-In House to-day the rule to bring the Bland Silver Seignlorage Coinage bill to vote, after two hours more debate. was adopted.

The vote was 166 to 13, a bare quorum Mr. Bland was recognized and offered a substitute for the original bill.

TRIED TO ABUSE A CHILD.

Little Annie Screamed and John Smith Was Arrested.

John Smith, thirty-three years old, no The Queen, Mr. O'Connor continues, has no doubt a right to send for whom she pleases, but Lord Rosebery may fail in the task.

"If, however, Lord Rosebery's present colleagues consent to act with him the question of the Premiership may be regarded as settled," Mr. O'Connor adds.

"If you go out early in the Senate in the Senate to have the amount cut down to $20,000, and it will have took five-year-old Annie Weinberg, of 32 Jefferson street, to the roof of the pass the Senate in that way. The bill was vetoed last year by Gov. Flower, but it is asserted that he will withdraw his objections to it.

The girl's cries brought Mrs. Ellen Powers, who lives in the house, to her assistance, and Smith was captured while attempting to escape.

DOOLEY GETS 5 YEARS. M'KANE OFF

Justice Barrett Sorry He Cannot Reach the Bosses.

One of the Indicted Vote Jugglers Jumps His Bail.

Quick Work in Sentencing Violators of the Ballot.

idward O'Donnell, under indictmen for making a false statement of the canvass of ballots in the Nineteenth Elec tion District of the Second Assembly Dis rict, to-day failed to answer when his case was called for trial before Justice inspectors at the infamous polling booth, 362 Pearl street, terrified O'Donnell, and ne, it is understood, preferred to jump the $2,500 ball upon which he was liberated, rather than stand trial.

O'Donnell's name was called three o four times. Then Assistant District-At-torney Wellman demanded the forfeiture of his ball bond. Bernard Golden, of I City Hall place, is surety for O'Donnel A brief respite was given Lawyer J. J. Walsh to produce O'Donnell, and Justice Barrett turned his attention to senencing Dooley and Ferris.

In the case of Dooley, who was calle o the bar first, Lawyer Walsh moved for a new trial. Justice Barrett over ruled the motion and sentenced the pris-Sing. The extreme penalty is seven years. In passing sentence, the Justice had a caustic word for those who may be the real instigators of such crimes as Dooley's and Ferris's—the bosses now far away. He said: "I have no desire to be unduly severe in these cases, and have endeavored to emper justice with mercy. I have been very careful to differentiate between cases where men have been

I have been very careful to differentiate between cases where men have been guilty of what has been wicked in likely from those where there has been no essential wick-diness. 'n your case, Dooley, I am sorry to say that we had very much the worst of all the cases brought-before us. In your case for the first time we are brought face to face with a crime which is essentially wicked. There could be nothing worse than the deliberate faisification, by an inspector of elections, of votes. The one pity is that if there, were people behind you in all this they cannot be brought here and pusished even more severely than you. The folgament of the Court is that you be sentenced to the State prison at hard labor for five years."

of the Court is that you be saturated to the State prison at hard labor for five years.

"Whew!" said a dozen of Dooley's friends. They had no idea the sentence would be more than two or three years. Ferris's case was called next, and in sentencing him Justice Barrett said his crime was not as bad as Dooley's, yet he regarded the punishment provided by law as entirely inadequate. He inflicted the maximum sentence, to wit, one year in the penitentiary and $500 fine.

These cases disposed of, O'Donnell's bail bond was forfeited and an order for his arrest followed.

Rudolph Beyer was called next and Lawyer Howe, speaking for him, said his client retracted his former plea of not guilty of doube voting. Justice Barrett thereupon sentenced him to 30 days in the penitentary.

John Murphy, better known as "Sugar" Murphy, because of his long employment as a truckman for the Havemeyers, retracted his plea of not guilty of procuring an illegal vote and pleaded guilty. Justice Barrett said the District-Attorney had informed him that Murphy's crime was really soliciting a vote within 100 feet of the polling booth. He thought the law would be satisfied with a fine of $250.

Frarcis O. Woodruff and Thomas F. Marron, indicted for making a false canvas of ballots, were surrendered by their bondsmen at this juncture, and they were given into the custody of Deputy Sheriff Brown. The bondsmen for Woodruff and Marron was "Sugar" Murphy, himself only a moment before fined $250.

fined E50.

Since I only a moment before additional positional pos morning the Senate General Laws Com- At Tryon Row, opposite the bridge en-mittee reported Senator Stapleton's trance, McKane's coach made a short

TO SING SING.

The Convicted Gravesend Boss Starts on His Journey to Prison.

STAY ASKED FOR AND DENIED

Lawyer Chas. Brooke Argues for a Certificate from Justice Barrett.

CROWDS AT RAYMOND ST. JAIL.

Many Friends Call to Bid the Czar Good-by-Driven Away in a Close Carriage.

The carriage containing McKane was ollowed by half a dozen cabs contain-Sheriff Buttling, who rode with Mc

Kane, stopped the carriage at the junction of Centre street and Park Row to give a friend of McKane an opportunity pace as to indicate that the carriage river had been notified that Mr. Mc Kane was in no hurry to reach his des-

The half-dozen newspaper men follow-handed down at 2 P. M., just in time morning the Senate General Laws Committee reported Senator Stapleton's Building and Loan Association bill, favored by the National loan associations and opposed by the local associations. The bill allows associations from other States to do business in this State on depositing £2,000 in money or a certificate of the deposit of a like amount of securities in the home State. The bill went on the order of second reading.

For a State Nautical School.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, March 1—Senator Cantor's bill, to provide for establishing a State Nautical School in New York City, and appropriating £3,000 in New York City, and appropriating £3,000 was reported favored by the smorning in the Senate. Senator Cantor consented to have the senate cut down to $200,000 was reported farely or the hall around the door of the court ends during the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers. A few moments after Jusice Barrett, who was hearing the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers. A few moments after Jusice Barrett, which was hearing the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers. A few moments after Jusice Barrett, which was hearing the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers. A few moments after Jusice Barrett, which it turned into a cross after and then into the Bowery.

ALBANY, March 1—Senator Cantor's which it turned into a cross after and then into the Bowery.

ALBANY was bearing the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers. A few moments after Jusice Barrett, who was hearing the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers.

A few moments after Jusice Barrett, who was hearing the trials of the men charged with election frauds, adjourned court and went to his private chambers. A few momen admission Justice Patterson also went into the room.

Lawyer Brooke was in Justice Barrett's private chambers three-quarters of an hour. When he came out he said to an "Evening World" reporter.

I have asked Justice Barrett to sign a certificate of reasonable doubt, granting McKane a stay pending the examination of the peints I shall raise.

"Justice Barrett now has the matter under advisement and promises to give his decision at 2 o'clock."

Mr. Brooke then hurried from the Court-House.

ASLEEP IN A SNOWBANK.

Woman Found in Cold Quarters or Greenwich Street.

While Policeman Davis, of the Church street station, was patrolling his post on lower Greenwich street, late last night, his attention was called to a se ries of prodicious snores that seemed to sioner Andrews' men.

The policeman investigated and founthe snow heap had been dug out on the inside, forming a snow house. It was occupied by a woman who, for an old pair of boots for a pillow, was calmly pair of boots for a pillow, was calmly sleeping.

The policeman shouted "Change cars!" and the woman sat up, rubbed her eyes and asked: "Well, I know where you will be soon," said bavis, as he started with her for the station house. But after traversing half the distance the woman refused to walk any further, and finished the journey ina push cart, in the train of which was a crowd of hooting boys.

In the Tombs Police Court, this morning, the woman said her name was Maggie Burke. Justice Taintor fined her $10.

WHEAT GOES UP ONE CENT

erate All Around.

Cotton opened about four points better tahn it closed last night, but there was only a moderate amount of trading. May opened at 7.60 a 7.61, against 7.56 at noon sold down to 7.59, and then up to noon soil down to 7.62.

Receipts at the ports to-day will be about 8.600 bales, against 7.299 last week, and 7.591 last year. Receipts at ports this week will be about 65.000 bales, against 82.527 last week, and 60.892 last against $2.527 last week, and 69.872 last year.

Wheat opened 1-4 cents higher here and at Chicago. May selling here at 63.58 cents and at 53.5-4 cents at the West. Ther was only a limited amount of local trading early, but later the market shot up about 3-4 cents more on bullish reports by Chichmati price current.

The coffee contract market was very quiet, but showing an advance of about ten points over yeaterday's closing prices. Only one sale of 250 bags May was made up to 1 P. M. at 15.35.

SMALL-POX IN SING SING.

New Cases Discoverd---One Patient Goes Crasy.

SING SING, N. Y., March 1.-Two nore cases of small-pox have been dis-were a three year convict and a one year man. The four men were employed ing in cabs had no trouble in keeping up with the procession.

It was 12.25 P. M. when the carriage drove away from Centre street and Park Row, and it was one hour later, at 1.25 P. M. when the party reached the Grand Central Depot.

It was the evident intention to keep McKane at the depot until word was received of dustice Bartlett's decision, which, McKane had been told, would be that they contracted the disease from the rags. It leaked out this morning that one of the men who was taken sick with the Tuesday became lasane while at work. He picked up a chair and three it from the ground. He then jumped out of the window which is about five feet from the ground.

Keeper Helf followed the man and they had a tussle. The convict, however, was finally overpowered.

Nearly all the clothes on the keeper and the prisoner were torn off.

the 2.15 WOULD SELL STOLEN WHEEL.

It was announced this afternoon that Constable

THE forld Almanac SAVES many a weary bunt through musty libraries.

TO DEATH.

Negroes Murder Mrs. Baker and Her Babe and Are Then Slain.

NEW JERSEY'S LATEST HORROR

They Killed the Woman and Child With an Axe and Then the Husband Awoke.

STRUGGLED FOR THE WEAPON.

Robbers Dead and Then Shot the Other. NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., March L-

Getting It Baker Struck One of the

There was a fearful tragedy early this six miles from here. Two negroes bent on robbery, entered the house of Moore Baker, a prosperous farmer. they killed her with an axe and siew her sixteen-months-old baby. The hus-band awakening, was also attacked. He secured the weapon from the segroes, and after cleaving the skull of on, shot and killed the other. The negroes were Willard Thou and Henry Baker. Both were you Thompson worked on J. D. Garrettso farm near the Baker homestead an Baker, who probably had the car name bestowed upon him, had been with the Bakers since boyhood. The negro Baker knew that Farmer Baker kept a considerable sum of money in a bureau drawer in his bedroom. He in a bureau drawer in his bedroom. He informed Thompson, and the two planned a robbery.

Entrance to the Baker house was forced through the cellar door in the rear. The negroes went up into the kitchen and cautiously tipioed up the rear stairway to the bedroom where the money was supposed to be kept.

Mrs. Baker hearing the stairs creak, got out of bed. She went to the bedroom door and cautiously opened it. The negroes approached Thompson, who was in advance, carrying an axe in his hand. Before he could utter a word Mrs. Baker gave a piercing scream. In an instant Thompson was upon her. With one blow the axe cleaved through the woman's skull, scattering brains and blood in every direction.

Thompson then jumped for the bed. The axe again descended, this time into the body of the baby, and it, too, was killed instantily.

His wife's cry of terror had awakened Baker, and he, realizing the state handed down at 2 P. M., just in time for Sheriff Buttling to take the 2.15 train to Sing Sing if the decision should be against McKane Lawyer Brooke had a carriage waiting in front of the County Court-House, in which he intended to ride up to the depot and congratulate the big Gravesender if the decision should be in McKane's favor.

At 2 o'clock Justice Barrett announced that he had decided to deny Lawyer Brooke's application.

Shortly before noon fully 100 people were gathered in front of Raymond Street dail watching for McKane to be seen a strength of the warned the bicycle.

WOULD SELL STOLEN WHEEL.

Johnson Accused of Stealing Rayburghous Bicycle.

William Johnson, a negro and alleged baker then closed on the field, and a terrible strugle ensued for the possession of the axe.

William Johnson, a negro and alleged ex-convict, twenty-seven years old, of and fro the men struggled. The sharp axe cut the hands and bodies of both men and blood flowed from a dozen wounds.

Finally by a desperate effort Baker rushed upon h m and buried the axe in the murder's brain.

The other regions who had been standard the bicycle were gathered in front of Raymond Street dail watching for McKane to be ty-ninth Precinct, at 1.30 o'clock this morning lying drunk on the sidewalk at one Hundred and Thirty-fifth street and Fifth avenue.

Cassle appeared before Justice Welde in the Harlem Police Court this morning on the Hariem Police Court this morning bearing in her arms a ponderous volume called "Haif Hours with the Servants of God." Policeman Balley stated that it required the united efforts of three offi-cers to take Cassie and her book to the station-house. tation-house.
Cassie said she was returning from hurch, and, being a victim to a kidney omplaint, took a drop to quiet her

I guess ten days will do you more d than the doctors," said Justice Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the thirty-six b ending at A P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Pair,